

Michael Lambert is from Buffalo, NY, where he received his BA in Dance and Visual Communication from the University at Buffalo.

He is on faculty at Buffalo State College and Walh Performing Arts Studios and enjoys teaching master classes and judging around the country for numerous Chapters of Dance Masters of America (D.M.A) and other national organizations. He is also a faculty member of the D.M.A Student Honors Intensive Program (S.H.I.P.) and Teachers Training School (T.T.S). Michael was honored to serve for three years as the National Director of D.M.A's Miss/Mr. Dance of America Scholarship Pageant and as Chairman of D.M.A's College Outreach Program and College Forum. Michael is the founder and director of Chapter #8 of Western New York's Jr. Membership program.

His performance credits include: Tokyo Disneyland, Tokyo Disney Seas, Walt Disney World, Royal Caribbean and Princess Cruise lines, and alongside Olympic Gold Medalists in the "Azure" Underwater Shows at the Silverton Casino in Las Vegas. Michael was also the model for the male dancer icons that decorate Disney's Pop Century Resort in Orlando, Fl.